Vice Admiral H. E. Overesch, third from right, was in command of a destroyer squadron at Pearl Harbor, later commanded a heavy cruiser in the Pacific. He also was a shipmate of Admiral Spruance during 1925-26 in Europe, while serving aboard a destroyer as Admiral Spruance's executive officer and navigator.

Rear Admiral Earl Stone, extreme right, was on Admiral Nimitz' staff at Pearl Harbor and after the war when Admiral Nimitz was chief of naval operations in Washington, D.C. (1945-47), served in Washington as head of naval communications. He was commander of the United States Postgraduate School at the time it became fully accredited for granting degrees.

Admiral Spruance, host at the luncheon, was Admiral Nimitz' chief of staff and head of the Central Pacific command following the Battle of Midway, during which he served as task force commander. He also was in charge of the conquest of the Gilbert and Marshall Islands, commanded the U. S. 5th Fleet (1944-45) and was commander in chief of the Pacific Fleet (1945-46).

The admirals who had served under Admiral Nimitz, guest of honor at the luncheon, reminisced about their service under his command. Admiral Nimitz, as usual, Admiral Spruance remarks, had many stories to tell.

"He is a remarkable storyteller, intelligent, without fear of any kind and a great fighting man," says Admiral Spruance of his former commander.

Carmel Goes To The County Fair This Weekend

Carmel residents are among the many making their way to the Monterey County Fair now in progress at the Fairgrounds in Monterey. Arts and crafts competition is deluged with winners from this city.

The National Horse Show is a drawing card for many horse enthusiasts. A variety of equestrians and mounts make this show unique and set it as one of the most renowned on the coast.

Floriculture brings an array of natural colors to the already oak and flower-studded Fairgrounds. Indoor and outdoor garden features provide many attractions.

No one can resist a carnival even if they limit their activity to watching the children have a gay time on ferriswheels and merry-go-rounds. Kids' Day is going on today and the "carnie-men" are swamped.

For the little ones who are just too young to take the enjoyable trip around the grounds, there is a playground where they can stay while the oldsters see the Fair.

A Fair could not be a Fair without a showcase for the area's produce, so such is the Agriculture Department at the Monterey County Fair. Corn, beans, lettuce, everything that Man can grow on the Peninsula and in Salinas Valley and surrounding areas is seen at this varied display.

Of course, entertainment is provided for the amusement of the Fairgoers. This years, a circus itself is part of the five-day Fair. Performances are twice daily, afternoon and evening.

There are all kinds of things to eat, do and see at the Monterey County Fair running through Sunday.

Youth Center Members Pass One-Third Mark Of Total Fund Goal

Carmel Youth Center members, during the first week of their fund drive, have collected donations amounting to $2,350, over one-third of their ultimate goal of $6,000.

The teenagers are completing plans for their annual open house party on September 8 which will officially end their current fund raising campaign to keep the recreation center open for another year.

Herb Miller's band will play for the open house, through the courtesy of the local branch of the Musician's Union. Variety acts will be included in the show being prepared for the event to which the whole community is invited free of charge.

Jack Giles, Youth Center director, emphasizes that all teenage members are equipped with a receipt book and identification badge when they solicit drive donations which are tax deductible.

Public Invited To Little League Annual Barbecue On Sept. 3

Carmel Little League and Pony League annual barbecue will be held on September 3 at the Fairgrounds in Monterey, starting at 1:00 o'clock. Trophies and certificates will be presented at 2:30 o'clock. The public is invited to the affair.

Tickets may be purchased from any Little League or Pony League manager or at the door on the day of the barbecue. Persons attending are asked to bring their own silverware.

No Federal Aid For Bomb Shelter School Board Told

If Carmel School District includes a fallout shelter in plans for the new junior high school at the mouth of Carmel Valley, the shelter will have to be paid for out of local funds, as matters stand now.

In a preliminary report on Civil Defense for schools made by Mrs. Warren Edwards to the school board last night, trustees learned that no matching funds are available from any government agency for shelter-construction purposes.

Also reporting to the board at its own request on feasibility of shelter construction was Capt. John H. Morse, Jr., USN, Ret., former special assistant to the chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission and now technical assistant to the Peninsula section of Aerojet-General Corporation, who is a Carmel resident.

In a forthcoming trip to Washington, D. C., Capt. Morse said, he will investigate further for the district on what the chances may be of getting matching funds from some government source.

Board members, who were advised that a three-hour interval is now necessary for delivery of all school children to their homes by bus, discussed the possibility of a dual-purpose shelter at the new school, in the form of an underground bus garage or, Clayton Neill suggested, underground classrooms.

At the same board meeting last evening, the board approved an Adult Education plan under which Monterey Peninsula College will give six courses at Carmel High School at a charge to the college of $1 per class hour for room use.

The plan, part of a long-range program slanted to placing adult education entirely under college jurisdiction on a Peninsula-wide basis, also came again under scrutiny when the school board was asked to approve fall schedule of adult school classes. Clayton B. Neill, Jr., a board member, cast a

Mrs. Adrian Bennett Resigns From Carmel District School Board

Mrs. Adrian (Betsy) Bennett resigned from the Carmel School Board last night, because she and her family are moving to Buffalo, New York. She said this week's meeting was her last as a member of the board.

Dr. Richard Snyder, Mrs. Bennett's colleague for two years on the board, expressed the group's regret and Superintendent Stuart Mitchell said Dr. Snyder's feeling was reflected by the school staff.

Mrs. Bennett was appointed to the school board two years ago to fill the unexpired term of Gordon Campbell. The trustees met in executive session following the Wednesday meeting to consider possible appointees to the vacancy.

Mr. Bennett has purchased a manufacturing company for smoking equipment and office accessories in Buffalo, the Duk-it corporation, which employs 150 in 68,000 square feet of plant.

Murphy Protests AFA Headquarters In Residence Zone

Directors of the Monterey Peninsula chapter of the American Federation of Arts, yesterday afternoon, agreed to outline in a report for the Carmel Planning Commission their future building construction, site and use plans for the former Forest Hill School, also allow the building inspector and fire chief to inspect and report on the premises.

The police chief will survey traffic conditions in the area and add his report to the above before the planning commission, in special session Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, will consider granting a use permit for the AFA to operate the former private school as headquarters and an art school.

At yesterday afternoon's second public hearing on the matter, Frank Murphy, a lifelong Carmel resident who lives at First and Mission Streets in the school vicinity, protested the granting of the permit. His main objection was the traffic situation in the school area where he allows the city to use a four-foot strip of his land to protect Woods School and former Forest Hill School pupils walking to and from school by his home. This permission can be revoked at any time, he continued, and added that Police Chief Clyde Klaumann would support his statement that the narrow approach to the proposed AFA headquarters was dangerous, and no increase

Janet Fehring Will Carry Carmel Lions' Message To Austria

There will be a personal exchange of greetings between the Lions Club in Steyr, Austria, and the Carmel Lions Club within a few months. The messages will be carried to a Lions Club meeting in Steyr by the daughter of a Carmel Lion traveling in Europe; brought to Carmel by the daughter of a Steyr Lion touring the United States.

The Carmel Lions Club sponsors the college education of a Steyr student by means of annual scholarship donations arranged by their international relations committee, whose chairman is Ernest Bixler.

Recently Lion Dr. Grohs of Steyr wrote to Mr. Bixler telling of the greetings being sent by the Steyr Lions to Carmel later this year by the daughter of one of the 17 Steyr Lions Club members.

PEBBLE BEACH HOSTS NATIONAL AMATEUR GOLF

With over 200 of the finest amateur golfers in the world challenging the water hazards, traps, and tricky grens of the world-famous Pebble Beach links, the National Amateur Golf Championship will get underway on September 11 and run through September 16. Amateur champions from England, Mexico, Ireland, and Canada will be on hand to make a run at defending champion Deane Beman of Arlington, Virginia. Play in the National Amateur is confined to the Pebble Beach course and match play will prevail throughout the tournament. The first six rounds will find the amateurs swinging over an eighteen-hole route while the semi-finals and finals will be contested over 36 holes.

Besides defending champion Beman, former National Amateur kingpins making another run at the title are Harvie Ward Jr., Jack Nicklaus, Charlie Coe, Jack Westland, Dick Chapman, and the venerable Chick Evans. This year's Amateur Public Links Champion, Dick Sikes of Springdale, Arkansas, figures to hold a pretty good stick in the Pebble Beach go-round. Charley McDowell of Virginia Beach, Va., a teen-ager with a big wallop, will bring his 1961 Junior Amateur title to the National Amateur in quest of bigger game.

The United States Walker Cup Team of Beman, Coe, Nicklaus, Bob Gardner, Bill Hyndman, Bob Cochran, Charley Smith, Dr. Frank Taylor, and Gene Andrews will be on hand for a try at the National.

During all the play in the National Amateur, Director Jack Giles and his Youth Center concession crews will be set up for business at the 8th and 18th holes to take care of the snack needs of the gallery and players. Under a new policy recently announced by Pebble Beach, the Youth Center will manage concession booths at all Pebble Beach golf tournaments.

CARMEL HIGH FOOTBALL PRACTICE STARTS AUG. 28

Lucky Carmel High School football players will get a week's head start on the rest of the students when they don the fighting gear on Monday, Aug. 28 for the first practice of the 1961 season. Over 100 candidates are expected to answer the call of Hadley Hicks, varsity mentor, and Buzz Rainer, veteran junior-varsity coach. The early starting date is necessary in order to comply with California Interscholastic Federation regulations which require 15 days practice before any interschool competition.

For the first week, both the varsity and junior-varsity will hold 1:00 o'clock practice sessions with fundamentals and conditioning occupying most of the practice plan. Medical exams were held this week and boys who missed the exams are urged to see their doctor and get a clearance before the first day's practice.

First interschool action for the Padre gridders is slated for September 15 when Carmel and Pacific Grove hold a football jamboree of their own. For the first time in years, the CCAL B-league will not participate in the league jamboree which annually starts the season. Both the varsity and junior-varsity players will take part in the September 15 Pacific Grove scrimmage. First league game finds the Padres hosting the Gonzales Spartans on September 30.

Four returning varsity lettermen are expected to don the pads for Monday's workout and provide the leadership for the defending champions. Quarterback Bob Palma, one of the finest passers in the league, is a two-year veteran at the signal-calling spot and should be a good team leader. Jim Kelley, a rangy 200-pound end, was the top rookie on the squad last season and should be the best in the league this year. Fullback George Pollock, an All-CCAL defensive halfback last year, threatens to be one of the top ball-carriers in the league. Pollock's running mate at defensive halfback, Lee Oleson, is back for another season of varsity ball and is a fine running back as well as a top defender. Thirty junior-varsity letter-men will move up to make a try for the Red and Gray varsity.

DAVID MARVIN PITCHES VALLEY TO LL TITLE

District Nine Little League Champions. That's the title now worn by the Leslie Motors Pistons of Carmel Valley who climaxed a near-perfect season last Saturday by defeating the Salinas Retail Clerks, 6 to 2, in the playoffs at Greenfield. A fine one-hit pitching performance by husky David Marvin overpowered the Salinas batters and paved the way for the Piston victory. In addition to a one-hit hurling job, the talented Marvin also slammed a home run and a single in three trips to the plate.

The Valley lads went to work with a vengeance in the first inning of the crucial playoff game, shoving across 3 runs to actually wrap up the tilt in the first frame. Mel Miyamoto's single, a double by Steve Meadows, and pitcher Marvin's single supplied the punch for the first-inning outburst. Walks to Larry Leslie and Cliff Branch produced two more markers in the second heat as a nifty bunt by Meadows moved them around the bases. A little icing was added to the cake in the fifth inning when Marvin powered a high fastball far over the centerfield fense.

Salinas got on the board for two runs in the fourh heat when Marvin found the plate jumping around and walked two Clerk batters. A wild pitch and a past ball allowed both runners to score. Except for the lapse in the fourth inning, Marvin was unbeatable as he struck out 15 Salinas swingers while giving up 4 walks.

This concludes the season for the amazing Valley Little League team which has compiled a fabulous 20-1 record for the season. A well-knit, well-coached team with tremendous team spirit, the Pistons roared through the Valley Little League, whipped Carmel's San Carlos Realty in a two-out-of-three

Verna Osborne Sings Sunday At Musicale In Carmel Valley

A musicale and garden party at the home of Mrs. Henry Potter Russell in Carmel Valley will be held Sunday starting at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon. The event is a benefit for St. Dunstan's Episcopal Church Building Fund.

Artists who will perform during the musical part of the program are Verna Osborne, dramatic soprano; Mary Rosalie Haslett, harpist; Ralph Linsley, pianist; and the Harmony Hill Quartet, H. M. M. Nicholas, George Beck, Irmeli Rawson and Helen Stross.

Refreshments will be served and the gardens about Mrs. Russell's home will be open to those attending the affair.

Verna Osborne, lyric soprano, has appeared with the San Francisco Symphony, and received great acclaim during her European tour. Pianist Ralph Linsley, has been a soloist at each Bach Festival for the past 25 years.

Richard Benson

Richard Edgar Benson, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond D. Benson, Seventh Avenue and Camino Real, died on Tuesday in a local hospital following an illness of three months. He was known to his friends as Rickie and had lived in Carmel his entire life, having been born here on July 9, 1954.

Rickie would have been a second grade student at River School this year. His teachers found him an intelligent and artistic little boy. He was a Pine Cone salesboy.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by two brothers, Charles R. and Jon Patrick Benson; two sisters, Judith C. and Suzanne M. Benson, all of Carmel; his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles U. Fonteneau of Carmel; five aunts, Mrs. B. J. Asher of Landstuhl, Germany, Mrs. Olin P. Hedges of North Sacramento, Mrs. Chester White and Mrs. John Thompson of Braggadocio, Missouri, and Mrs. Ruby Ward of Ventura; three uncles, W. R. Benson of National City, E. E. Benson of Paragould, Arkansas, and R. W. Benson of Flagstaff, Arizona.

Private funeral services were held this morning in the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea with the Reverend Charles H. Burrill officiating. Burial followed in El Carmelo Cemetery.

Paul Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Beardsley Doubles Size Of Mesa Home For Family Of 20

A house on Hatton Fields Mesa bluff, overlooking Mission Fields, is being doubled in size to accommodate a family of 18 children, eleven girls and seven boys, following the marriage of Mrs. Helen North of San Leandro and Chief Warrant Officer Francis Louis Beardsley on September 9 in Carmel Mission Basilica.

CWO Beardsley, stationed at the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School, owner of the house, says three of the children will attend Junipero Serra High School in Monterey; nine will be enrolled at Serra School at Carmel Mission; six will still be too young to go to school.

Asked if his future wife will have any household help he answered, "No! We're a pretty good outfit," and went on to explain that each child will be responsible for certain household tasks in the completed eight-bedroom, five-bathroom home with family and dining rooms, covering an area of 5,400 square feet, twice its original size.

"And we won't need sitters, either," he added.

Mrs. North and CWO Beardsley, both widowed, met a month ago after exchanging prayers by mail. Mrs. North's husband, Lieutenant Richard North, USN, was killed in a bomber crash a little over a year ago. CWO Beardsley's wife died at about the same time.

Mrs. North was left with eight young children, her future husband with ten. The North children are Colleen, 11 years old; Janette, ten; Nicholas, nine; Thomas, eight; Jean, five; Phillip, four; Gerald, three; and Teresa, one. CWO Beardsley's family consists of Michael, 17; Charles, 15; Gregory, 14; Rosemary, 13; Louise, 11; Mary, ten; Susan, eight; Veronica, seven; Germaine, four; and Joan, 17 months old.

Michael and Charles Beardsley will serve as altar boys during the Nuptial Mass at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon which will be celebrated by Captain Joseph Geary, Navy chaplain. A reception will follow in the Copper Cup Room at the Navy School. Lawrence Slattery of San Jose will be best man for CWO Beardsley. Mrs. North's attendant will be her sister, Miss Kathleen Brandmeir of Castroville.

Those who "request the honor of your presence" on the wedding invitations are all of the 18 children. They will have new outfits for the occasion, CWO Beardsley promises. In reply to being asked if he clothed his children by purchasing on the wholesale market, he said, "Not yet." But he is considering purchasing food at restaurant rates.

Six MPC Evening Courses To Be Taught In Carmel

Copies of Monterey Peninsula College, evening division, announcement of courses for the fall semester are available and will be mailed to interested persons who phone the administration building FR 5-9821.

For the first time, some of the night college courses will be given in Carmel and Pacific Grove, at the high schools. Carmel is to have Political Science 1, American Government; Journalism 25 A, magazine writing; Business Law, Aviation 60 A, and Section 1 of Elementary German.

The catalogue lists 91 academic courses to be taught by the 67 member evening division faculty. In addition there are four special technical courses and several University of California and San Jose State upper division extension courses, for which a fee of from $20 to $30 is charged, depending on the course.

Institute Of Foreign Studies Ends Summer Session Saturday

Final exercises of the seventh summer session of the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies will be held on Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at 425 Van Buren Street. This will be the conclusion of the ten-weeks session for beginners in modern languages. The group will be addressed by Dr. Manuel de Ezcurdia, chairman of the department of Spanish.

Dr. de Ezcurdia's topic will be Language Learning and Language Teaching in America. He is a graduate of the University de Guanajuato, and received his doctorate from the University of California at Berkeley. He has had postgraduate work at the University of Paris and has taught at Northwestern University and the University of California. This is his third summer teaching at the Monterey Institute and he will devote the coming year to research and writing in Mexico.

in traffic should be allowed.

Mr. Murphy said that, in his opinion, non-conforming use of residence zone property should revert to residential use, not be continued by use permit. He cited as example of his conviction in this respect, the fact that he moved the cabinet shop, yards and offices of the M. J. Murphy Lumber Company out of the residence zone and refused to rent offices on the property after the move, even though he received five requests in two days for this use.

Referring to the area where the AFA chapter wishes to have their headquarters and school and he has his home, he said, "It is residential and we would like to see it kept that way."

He emphasized that as a born and raised Carmelite he was not against art and in his childhood had studied with Carmel's outstanding teachers in the arts, but believed "Art should not encroach on the residential zone."

In conclusion, Mr. Murphy pointed out that although he and his mother had supported the rebuilding of the Golden Bough Theatre in the residence zone, near his mother's home, later she complained about resulting noise. The AFA operation was a similar situation, he concluded.

The AFA chapter wishes to have offices, four-day seminars with twice a day sessions for a maximum of 20 students and occasional small shows and social events at the former school, according to letters submitted to the commission with a site plan showing off-street parking for 27 cars hidden by natural shrubbery and 24 pine trees.

Planning commissioners want assurance that this use will not be increased in future and result in requests for additional construction on the seven-lot site; that the Forest Hill building meets present building code and fire requirements for assembly and school use; and that the police department approves traffic conditions arising from the use. Answers to these matters will be presented in the reports requested for next week's meeting.

Chairman Herbert Blanks requested the land use committee to study and report on provisions for issuing building permits for fall out shelters in the residential zone. Building Inspector Floyd Adams said he has frequent requests for such shelters which are not included in the building code.

Commissioners denied directional-informational signs to the Galerie de Tours and the Laky Galleries, both private commercial enterprises desiring signs on city property, and aded that the city instigate the removal of any such signs now in existence.

The commission also accepted the report of the land use committee on building bulk and site control in the commercial district. The report stated that the establishment of exact bulk and site controls would tend to encourage misuse or abuse by efforts to obtain the maximum usable building space at the sacrifice of design and architectural quality; also result in many buildings of the same size and design. The existing ordinance sufficiently controls building bulk and site size the report ended.

Chairman Blanks appointed commissioners to the following committees for the next six months: design review, Florence Josselyn, George Willox, and J. B. Martin; land use, Fred Keeble and Hugh Smith; public improvements, J. B. Martin and Dorothy von Meier; architectural matters, Florence Josselyn and George Willox.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg

"In a recent issue of MIT's Technology News, the prediction is made that by the year 2000 it may be possible to dial a number on almost any college campus and call up on a television screen any desired book in any major research library, the books having been stored with a compression of an entire page to the square millimeter of magnetic tape." This statement was taken from the August issue of the Library Journal. For those of us who love the warm companionship of an honest to goodness book there is only one conclusion. Don't be caught doing research work in the year 2000. Run, don't walk, to the nearest library, while there is yet time.

In the same issue a group of librarians who had been visiting libraries in Russia reported that the emphasis on libraries there is "staggering". The slogan for the American Library Association this year is "Libraries for All" but these librarians reported that this was also the slogan for Russian libraries as far back as 1959. So now we have to hurry to keep up with them in science, in space travel, AND in library support. It becomes plain that without books and libraries, we and our children are indeed lost.

A new book with good reviews is the funny-humorous Straw in My Camel's Hair by Naida Buckingham. It is the account of the author's adventures while acting as secretary to an Arab Sheik, in Geneva, Switzerland. True, all true, and very dashing.

Brought up to recite glibly the old poem about Lizzie Borden who gave her mother forty whacks, you may change your opinions after reading Lizzie Borden by Edward Radin. Here we have an author who simply doesn't believe she did it.

Two how-to-do-it books are new with us this week. One is How to Plan Modern Home Grounds by Henry Aul. The title tells the contents. The other is How to Assemble Boats from Kits by Robert Scharff. We checked to see if the latter book had a chapter on how to assemble your own life preservers, and it did not. This makes the boat book a must for good swimmers only. There are loads of pictures in both books. Carry on!

Past Draft Age Volunteers Sought For State Reserve

"Many volunteers are needed to fill important vacancies in the 26th Battalion, California National Guard Reserve," Lt. Col. William F. Wren Jr. Commanding Officer of the local unit said today. "The Berlin crisis," he added, "with possibility that all or part of the California Army National Guard being called into Federal service, points up the need for an adequate home defense force to guard vital installations and aid civil defense and law enforcement agencies, should we be attacked."

The 26th Battalion meets on the first, third and fifth Thursday nights at the Armory on the Monterey Peninsula College Campus, and conducts training in line with its internal security mission. Officers and enlisted men and women presently drill without pay, but would be paid in grade if called to State active duty in an emergency.

The California National Guard Reserve is not federally recognized, although it is authorized by Congress in Public Law 364, which was enacted to permit the separate states to maintain cadre military forces in addition to the National Guard.

Men with prior military experience are preferred, although men and women with special skills may enlist or qualify for a commission. Physical examinations are not required at this time, but applicants must be over draft age and not committed to a reserve obligation.

State Charges County Welfare Operation Is Non-Conforming

The State Department of Social Welfare reported Tuesday that Monterey County's welfare program is not conforming to Federal and State laws.

The report stems from an investigation conducted by the State last May in Monterey County after complaints were received about the county's Aid to Needy Children (ANC) program and certain other welfare practices.

J. M. Wedemeyer, State Director of Social Welfare, said the investigation produced "a number of findings which clearly show the county is not operating in conformity with federal and state welfare laws."

Here is a summary of the findings in the report:

"Many persons eligible for Aid to Needy Children are being refused the right to apply for this aid, and placed instead on the lower standard county general assistance.

"County welfare officials deliberately avoid telling needy persons about the ANC program, its benefits, and the individual's right to appeal.

"Unnecessarily long delays exist in the process of applying for aid.

"Individuals receiving aid are being denied full benefits allowed by law, and many of their cases are being improperly handled."

During the investigation the Department reviewed 33 individual case records and questioned numerous county officials, private citizens, and welfare recipients.

Supervisor Tom Hudson gave the following statement to the newspapers of the county:

"The board of supervisors is responsible for proper operation of the department headed by Mr. Leach. If there has been non-compliance of our department in state regulations, this practice is going to cease immediately. Mr. Leach has assured me as well as other members of the board of supervisors of his co-operation in this matter.

"I intend to ask the board of supervisors to undertake a study of the technical problem involved in so far as the interest of state regulation is concerned. I am not going to tolerate a dispute between the two agencies to interfere with honest needs of the citizens of Monterey County whether young or old who have in good faith asked for relief, nor am I going to engage at the expense of the taxpayers relaxation of the traditional vigilance of the welfare department, to keep freeriders and chiselers off the relief rolls.

"The charges which were filed by the state and received by the board of supervisors this morning (Tuesday) were of such serious nature that, though the state has already admitted some of them to be in error, I have referred all of the material received to the chairman of the Monterey County grand jury with my assurance that we will co-operate to the fullest in any investigation which they may desire to undertake.

"If we can't reach an understanding with the state welfare board, and the governor, if that be necessary, over the way this matter has been handled by the state, then I'm prepared to request Assemblyman Alan Pattee to institute a study of the entire welfare problem at the next session of the legislature."

Mrs. McComish

Mrs. Eleanora McComish died on August 14 in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Wilkinson, in Pacific Palisades after several months of failing health.

Mrs. McComish was a descendant of Monterey County pioneers who settled near the mouth of the Salinas River. Her husband, the late Ralph McComish, was an attorney in San Jose. Following his death, Mrs. McComish moved to Pacific Grove, then about 20 years ago came to live in Carmel where her home was on Ridgewood Road. Several years ago she moved again to Carmel Valley and resided there until this spring when ill health caused her to go to live in Southern California with her daughter.

She is also survived by a son, Captain Dan McComish (USN), stationed in Pennsylvania; and six grandchildren, including Gregor Wilkinson, M.D. of Los Angeles, and Judy Wilkinson, a student at Stanford University, both of whom attended Sunset School when they and their mother lived here during World War II with Mrs. McComish.

Private funeral services for Mrs. McComish were held last week in San Jose.

Scenic lakes you can enjoy...
beautiful by-product of PG&E service

PG&E's lakes—more than 100 of them, all along the Sierra—are there for you to enjoy. They're formed when we build dams to harness and conserve water for power generation. These lakes, the streams they help keep flowing year-round, and our access roads to them, are open to tourists, vacationers, fishermen and all lovers of the great outdoors. We work with fish, game, forestry and highway officials to make these areas even more enjoyable. Moreover, the conserved water and its regulated release help farmers irrigate their lands in the foothills and valleys below. Our lakes are delightful and beneficial by-products of electricity, and there are new ones almost every year as Pacific Gas & Electric Company builds ahead for a state-on-the-grow.

Indian Reading Club To Have Powwow Tomorrow Morning

The story hour on Wednesday at the Harrison Memorial Library was the last of the season. This program has been a success, according to Ruth Thornburg, librarian, and the children have enjoyed following the giant footsteps into the library in the morning, and listening to the stories as told by Mrs. Pauline Heisinger, the Children's Librarian.

Tomorrow morning at 10:00 o'clock the Indian Reading Club for the younger readers, will hold a powwow. Club members will be admitted through the blue door in the lower front patio, because the library does not open until later in the morning. At this time the reading certificates will be given out and the official termination of the reading program will follow. All members of the Indian Reading Club are invited to be present.

Editor, Carmel Pine Cone:

For the last 16 years, ever since I bought a home in Carmel Woods, I have passed daily one of the ugliest spots in Carmel, and in all that time I have never heard a word of protest from citizens of Carmel about it. One can get used to ugliness, if one sees it often enough. Probably that is the psychological explanation of the phenomenon.

I refer to the high clay palisade at the junction of Junipero and Camino del Monte, which is now topped by a very prominent pink house. Perhaps the building of this house has brought the problem into focus. It seems to me that it would cost very little to beautify this palisade. Why not ask your readers to send in suggestions toward that end?

Possibly the American Federation of Arts which now has a home only a block away might be interested. For instance, how about an appropriate mural painting? This might help north-bound motorists to respect the traffic stop sign at that point. (One objection might be that they would linger too long to satisfy their curiosity).

The present blank wall is almost as objectionable as a billboard. Certainly someone can come up with a good solution of the problem.

Very sincerely,
C. Edward Graves

Edna Edwards

Miss Edna Edwards, a clerk in the Carmel post office for 11 years prior to her retirement four years ago, died Sunday in a local hospital where she had been a patient for the past month.

Miss Edwards was born in Maricopa, Arizona, on April 14, 1902. She came to live in California 40 years ago. Her service with the post office department covered a period of 34 years. Prior to coming to Carmel, she was a postal clerk in Oakland and Los Angeles. She had lived with Miss Zella S. Hammock, also a postal clerk, at Guadalupe Street and Fifth Avenue since coming here in 1946.

She is survived by two brothers, Herbert Edwards of Niles, Michigan, and Horace Edwards of San Bernardino; also many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services, conducted by Dr. Joseph M. Ewing, pastor of the Carmel Presbyterian Church, were held this morning in the Paul Funeral Chapel. Burial will be in Williams, Arizona.

Our bank helped us buy our home!

"We wanted a real home with a yard for Debbie, but it seemed more than we could manage until we talked to our bank manager at Wells Fargo American Trust. He helped us decide how much to spend and, when we found our house, he helped us arrange the financing. Now we have a real investment in better living.

"Our bank manager's good advice has often helped us do more with our money. That's why our savings, checking account, safe deposit box, even a special account for Debbie—are all there. We've learned how many ways it pays to have a family bank."

Dr. Eldred J. Renk, a member of Hartnell College faculty, died of a heart attack on Thursday in Boise, Idaho, where he had gone to attend the funeral of his mother. Although he had a mild heart attack this spring, death was unexpected.

Dr. Renk was born in Eagle, Idaho, on July 1, 1921. He attended schools in Iowa, served with the Army Airways Communications System during World War II, then obtained his Ph.D. degree from the University of Washington in 1949. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and professional societies in the fields of linguistics and modern languages. In addition to a great deal of writing in these fields, he was particularly distinguished for work in Mexico on the historical ballad and used this study as basis for his doctoral dissertation.

Dr. Renk was also a musician and composer. He was especially known on the Peninsula as a singer of French, German and Spanish folk music, accompanying himself on the guitar.

He came to Carmel three years ago from Fresno and purchased a home at the southwest corner of Carmelo and Santa Lucia Streets. His wife, Lois, who survives him, is associated with a Peninsula real estate firm.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a son, Robert Eugene, 16 years old and a junior at Carmel High School; also six sisters and two brothers living in Idaho and California.

Mrs. Renk and her son are in Idaho staying with Mr. and Mrs. Claude High, Mrs. Renk's parents.

Funeral services were held in Boise. Interment was in Cloverdale Memorial Park in the same city.

Friends wishing to honor the memory of Dr. Renk may do so in the form of donations to the Heart Association Fund.

M. Underwood

Mrs. Marguerite Hubbel Underwood died on Saturday in a local hospital. She had been in failing health for some time.

Mrs. Underwood was born in Elgin, Illinois, on August 22, 1890. Her husband, Harold Pierce Underwood, died on August 18, 1960. She was a member of the National Teachers Association and had lived at Dolores Street and Twelfth Avenue since coming here with her husband in 1945 from Stockton.

She is survived by a sister-in-law, Mrs. Cora Hubbel of Elgin, Illinois, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Arrangements for funeral services were made by the Stout Funeral Home in Elgin, following local arrangements by Paul Mortuary.

Charles Hyden

Funeral services for Charles DeGuy Hyden were held on Wednesday afternoon in the Paul Funeral Chapel with the Reverend Harris Pillsbury officiating at the rites assisted by members of Carmel Lodge 680, F.&A.M., who also acted as pallbearers. Burial followed in El Carmelo Cemetery.

Mr. Hyden died on Saturday in his home at Viscaino Street and Mountain View Avenue following a short illness. He was a former employe of the State Department of Corrections who retired following service at the penal institute in Tracy and came here to live nine months ago. He also worked for the same department in Lancaster.

He was born on the Starrett Ranch in Palo Colorado Canyon on June 13, 1896. His marriage to his wife, Margaret, took place in Los Angeles on September 14, 1910.

In addition to Mrs. Hyden, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. H. S. Webb of Lancaster; two daughters, Mrs. Rollin W. King of Carmel and Mrs. Harold L. Graham of Saratoga; and two grandchildren, Penny King of Carmel and David Graham of Saratoga.

ORDINANCE NO. 31 C.S.
AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE RESTRAINT OF DOGS UNDER FOUR (4) MONTHS OF AGE

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA DOES ORDAIN as follows:

Section 1. That Part III, Division 3, of the Municipal Code be, and the same is hereby amended by the addition of a new section to be known as Section 394, which shall read as follows:

"Section 394. DOGS UNDER FOUR (4) MONTHS OF AGE. All dogs under four (4) months of age shall be confined to the premises of, or kept under physical restraint by, the owner, keeper or harborer of such dog. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the sale or transportation of a puppy four (4) months old or younger. Any dog in violation of this section shall be impounded in the same manner and place, and subject to the same regulations as dogs that are seized and impounded pursuant to Sections 387 or 388 hereinabove. The provisions of this section shall apply to the entire city. Any owner, keeper or harborer of a dog under four (4) months of age permitting it to be at large other than as herein provided shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

Section 2. That Part III, Division 3 of the Municipal Code be amended by the adoption of a new section to be known as Section 395, which shall read as follows:

"Section 395. CLARIFICATION OF TERMS. Wherever in this section reference is made to C-1 and C-2 zones of the city, all of the C-1 zones and the C-2 zones of the city shall be deemed included, so that each reference to the C-1 and C-2 zones shall be deemed to refer to zones C-1-L, C-1-S, C-1-C, and C-2."

CERTIFICATION OF CITY CLERK

I, L. D. ROSE, the undersigned, City Clerk of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, California, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of Ordinance No. 31 C.S., which was given its First Reading at a Regular Meeting of the City Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, California, held on the 5th day of July, 1961, and finally adopted at a Regular Meeting of the said Council on the 9th day of August, 1961.

I further certify that upon its passage the foregoing Ordinance was signed by the Mayor of said City and attested by the City Clerk thereof.

DATED this 21st day of August, 1961.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

Significance for today of the healing theology of Christ Jesus will be explained at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus" will include this verse from Matthew (9): "And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people."

One of the correlative citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states:

"The highest earthly representative of God, speaking of human ability to reflect divine power, prophetically said to his disciples, speaking not for their day only but for all time: 'He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also;' and 'These signs shall follow them that believe' " (p. 52).

Symphony Guild Plans

Activities of the Monterey County Symphony Guild for the 1961-62 season began this week with all last year's 400 members being asked to renew their association with the group which sponsors social events to raise funds to support the local symphony, also presents preview teas before each of the season's concerts. Mrs. Joseph A. McKay, membership chairman, announces that anyone interested in guild activities is invited to join the group. Two-dollar membership fees may be sent to Box 373, Pebble Beach.

Life memberships of $50 have already been donated by Miss Florence Burrell, Mrs. James H. Causey, Miss Aimee Doolittle, Mrs. Charles A. Dowdell, Mrs. Haldane S. Fisher, Mrs. A. Boyd Newborn, Mrs. S. F. B. Morse, Mrs. James H. Parks, Mrs. Milton H. Shutes, Mrs. Philip Clinton Smith, Mrs. Paul Snyder, Mrs. Charles A. Stewart, Mrs. Rush R. Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Zellerbach.

The Brian Leidigs Have A Son

Steven Neal Leidig weighed eight pounds, seven and a half ounces when he was born on August 19. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Brian Leidig, Santa Fe and First Streets. He has a sister, Sheryl, who will be two years old in October.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Leidig of Carmel and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McRill of Ford, Kansas, are Steven's grandparents. He has four great-grandparents in Carmel. They are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leidig and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Taylor.

The former Stephanie Liese, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Liese of Carmel, is framed, above, by the altar of All Saints' Episcopal Church following her wedding on August 12 to Donald Crockett Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius B. Phillips of Pacific Grove.

Stephanie, given in marriage by her father, entered the candlelit church on his arm at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon to the accompaniment of Bach's C Minor Passacaglia played by organist Robert Forbes. Mr. Forbes was the music teacher of both Steff and Don, as they are known to their friends. The Reverend Peter Farmer assisted by his son, Mark, officiated at the double ring ceremony and the nuptial mass which was chosen by the dedicated couple. Steff and Don have both served as presidents of their respective churches' young peoples' group; Don at St. Mary's in Pacific Grove and Steff at All Saints'. Bach's Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring, provided the background for the impressive communion service. They left the church to the strains of Handel's Second Organ Concerto in G Major.

One hundred and fifty friends, members of the two Peninsula families and out of town guests, attended the ceremony and the reception which took place around the pool at Pacifica, the Liese home in Carmel, and toasted the handsome bride and groom in champagne before they left for a Northern California honeymoon.

Stephanie was exquisite in a period gown of Venetian lace appliqué on silk organza fashioned with pointed bodice and neckline outlined with the lace. An heirloom veil of Flemish lace over French illusion, worn by all the brides on the maternal side of her family, fell to the hem of her full floor-length skirt. A tiara of Austrian crystals and seed pearls held the veil in place. A string of matched pearls, a gift from her father, was her only ornament. On her satin-covered prayerbook, a gift from her grandmother, she carried a single white orchid. For her going away ensemble she chose a lime linen suit with white accessories.

Judith Darrow of Arcadia, cousin of the bride, was her only attendant and wore a bouffant flesh pink gown with rose hat and veil, and carried a crescent bouquet of roses which matched her dress.

Mrs. Liese, the bride's mother, attended the ceremonies in an original frock of antique figured oriental silk. A feather hat in the peacock colors of her gown completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Phillips, the mother of the groom, was clad in a mauve brocade gown with a short jacket and matching gloves, shoes and bag. Her fuchsia orchid corsage matched her small velvet hat.

Frank G. Adams Jr. of Carmel Valley served Donald as groomsman. The ushers were William Phillips, brother of the groom, Captain C. Peyton Rufe, Kenneth M. Fennell, and Andrew Kier. Mrs. Clifford Bundy presided over the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips were hosts at a buffet dinner given for the wedding party at their Pacific Grove home on Friday evening preceding the wedding.

Donald, a native of the Peninsula, was graduated from Pacific Grove High School and completed his pre-dental studies at Monterey Peninsula College. Stephanie attended private schools in the east before graduating from Carmel High School and majoring in psychology at Monterey Peninsula College. They plan to continue their college education when Donald enrolls in dental school.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baddeley of Pasadena; Mrs. M. Lowe Darrow, also of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. John Lowe Darrow of Arcadia; Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Mason of Berkeley and Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean of San Jose.

Helen Ross To Marry

Word has been received of the approaching marriage of a former Carmelite, Helen Ross, to Donald Reiterman of Pasadena. They became engaged in March of this year. Helen, who is the daughter of Mrs. Taylor Ross and William D. Ross, spent eight years as a pupil at Sunset and Carmel High schools, then left in 1954 after her sophomore year for Europe where she finished her college preparatory work in England, France and Switzerland.

In 1960 she graduated from Scripps College in Claremont, having majored in literature and been active in the French, choral, and drama clubs, and in the modern dance group Orchesis. The following fall, after a summer as waitress in Boothbay Harbor, Maine, she entered Rutgers University in New Jersey for library training and is currently working as a librarian for the Jet Propulsion Laboratory of the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena.

Her fiance, Donald Richard Reiterman, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Walker Reiterman of Altadena. He is a 1958 graduate of the California Institute of Technology and is now a research-design engineer associated with Arrowhead Products of Southern California, pioneers in fuel-suit and spacecraft parts manufacturing. Don and Helen met in the fall of her senior year at Scripps.

Their wedding will be held on Saturday evening in the chapel of the Pasadena Presbyterian Church. The Reverend Ganse Little will officiate. The couple plan for the time being to continue living in Southern California.

CHS Student Olympic Champion

Carmel persons at a recent Peninsula MRA event were interested to discover that a tall young man wearing a blazer with the five-circle Olympic Games crest was former Carmel High School student Ted Nash who had flown here from Seattle to be one of the evening's speakers.

He said he ended his education at Carmel High School in 1949 then attended Boston University before becoming an Army flier at Fort Lewis, Washington. He rows for the Lake Washington Rowing Club which he helped organize.

At last summer's Olympic Games in Rome Ted was a member of the four-oar without cox crew that won a gold medal for the United States, the first time this event had been won by Americans. He also was a member of a similar crew that won at the 1959 and 1960 National Championships, also the Pan-American Games in 1959. This year Ted placed first at the nationals in Philadelphia in the four with cox and double sculling crew events. This week and next he planned to row in the European Games in Prague, Czechoslovakia.

William Rodgers Married Sunday

A floor-length gown of silk organza, trimmed with re-embroidered appliques of chantilly lace and a princess crown of pearls holding a float of illusion veiling was worn by Linda Louise Snell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Andrew Snell of Los Gatos, for her marriage to William Le Roy Rodgers, Jr. of San Jose, at St. Mary's Church in Los Gatos on Sunday at 3:00 o'clock. The bride, given in marriage by her father, carried a heart-shaped bouquet of white orchids surrounded by white rosebuds. The church was decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladiolas.

Nancy Lee Snell was her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. Sally Irene Terneping, cousing of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. They were dressed in bell type sheaths of apricot taffeta and carried apricot roses.

Donald Charles Moody was best man for Bill, whose parents are Mrs. Alfred L. Madsen of Carmel and William L. Rodgers of San Jose, while Jerry Mario Malzane and George Anthony Snell, brother of the bride, ushered.

The mother of the bride wore a willow green sheath fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves and a crushed satin cummerbund and pinned on a corsage of green orchids. The groom's mother chose a Dior blue chiffon sheath with coat neckline and matching accessories. Her flowers were white orchids.

A reception followed at Panorama Ranch, originally the home of Linda's great-grandparents, the Daniel James Snells, where guests and members of the wedding enjoyed a buffet supper and champagne was served from a bar in the garden.

The bride graduated from Los Gatos High School and San Jose Junior College. The bridegroom, a member of Delta Sigma fraternity and the Riverside Men's Golf Club, is a graduate of Carmel High School and San Jose State College.

Following a honeymoon trip to Southern California and Las Vegas, the couple will reside in San Jose.

Town House Talk On Birds

Lillian Grace Paca will speak at Town House on Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock on Bird Lore and Legend.

Mrs. Paca, a painter of birds, has collected a wealth of old stories and legends about birds which she will tell for the first time in this Town House talk to supplement the exhibit, Song Birds, which is on display there during this month. The day of her talk is the last day of her exhibit.

Tea will be served as usual at 4:00 o'clock.

The program of activities for Town House during the fall is now being planned. If anyone is interested in any particular craft or cultural pursuit, their desires should be made known at the Town House office.

Captain and Mrs. R. D. Risser announced the engagement of their elder daughter, Susan Jane Sharp, to Robin Elwood Way, eldest son of Dr. and Mrs. Eric Berne, at a party Saturday given for a group of the young people's friends. Susan's godparents, Captain and Mrs. R. M. Keithly of Long Beach, also were guests.

Susan and Robin plan to marry on September 3 and will live in San Francisco.

Susan is an assistant department manager in the Emporium's merchandise training program. She is a graduate of King George High School in Virginia, also, in June, of Sullins College in Bristol, Virginia. She has a sister, Betsy Risser. Her father is director of the engineering school at the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School.

Robin graduated from Carmel High School in 1958 then attended Monterey Peninsula College before serving with the U.S. Coast Guard for six months. The following year he studied at the University of Lausanne in Switzerland and last year was a student at the University of Idaho. He will continue his college work, majoring in political science and languages, at San Francisco State College next semester. He has one sister, Janice Way, and two brothers, Ricky and Terry Berne.

Jeanie Roeder Goes To Scripps

Among 104 new students entering Scripps College in Claremont next month will be Jeanie Roeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Roeder. A June graduate of Carmel High School, she is now travelling in Europe. During her high school years, Jeanie was awarded a P-TA diamond pin, Carmel High School's highest scholastic award, also was a California Scholarship Federation member, secretary of the student body, junior class treasurer, French Club secretary, a member of Leaders' Club, and editor-in-chief of The Padre, school newspaper.

NEPOTE PAINTINGS AT HIGHLANDS GALLERY

The internationally known California-born artist, Alexander Nepote, will have a one-man show of his paintings at the Carmel Highlands Gallery starting Saturday and continuing for three weeks. He has never shown his work on the Peninsula before. His home is in the San Francisco Bay area.

The Ephraim Doner show, scheduled for the Highlands Gallery has been cancelled.

Your Carmel Youth Center Needs Your Cooperation NOW So They Can Help Themselves In The Future

Many projects are being inaugurated by the Youth Center Members to keep them on a self-sustaining basis . . . such as having the food concessions at all functions in the Del Monte Properties, cleaning up the Laguna Seca race track plus other programs that will help them EARN THEIR WAY. This will eventually eliminate special fund drives; however, NOW is the hour to keep this youth organization an active and constructive part of your community.

ANY contribution will be appreciated. ALL will be acknowledged.

Subsequent ads, listing contributors, will appear in the Pine Cone through September 7.

dissenting vote against approval because he felt there might be duplication in a college-planned course called Journalism 25-A, on magazine writing, and a regular Carmel adult school course, Writing for Publication. (The former is concerned with non-fiction, the latter with creative writing.)

Also on the school board agenda was a report on bond investment income. Collected on interest from investment in short-term government security so far is $19,508.48, which by law must be credited to the bond retirement fund. Just how the amount will reduce the tax rate on current bonds will be announced later, Superintendent Stuart Mitchell said.

Other items before the board last night included:

Approval of the junior high school plans delivered to the Division of Architecture and Division of School Planning at Sacramento. (This is one more stage in planning for construction and does not indicate approval without chance for modification.)

Acceptance by the board of the resignations of teachers Linda Bilon of River School and Marilyn Peterson of Woods, and ratification of the employment of Lawrence Sturtivant as sixth grade teacher at River School.

Passage of three resolutions accepting deeds from heirs of the Scarlett property which the district is purchasing for a new school site in Carmel Valley.

Awarded a contract for playground paving at Carmelo School in the amount of $3,250 in response to a low bid from the Granite Construction Company and one to Republic Steel Corporation which will supply the high school with 404 metal lockers at a cost of some $6,000. Actually, the Republic bid was $5,276.24 because of an added cost made necessary when the school decided on slanting locker tops, but the district, which has $5,000 budgeted for the lockers, will round off the figure by eliminating redwood and panels on locker rows. The redwood panels had been planned for appearance and can be added at a latter time.

Adopted a school bus schedule substantially the same as last year's, except that it includes a few more needed stopping points.

The school board delayed action on the request for $5,000 for the Carmel Youth Center which was passed on to the board by the Carmel City Council so shortly before the meeting that board members had had no apportunity to study the matter.

First Mozart Sonata Concert Tonight At Carmel Woman's Club

Musica Viva's Sallie Strauss Memorial Concerts, the first West Coast performances of the full Mozart cycle of violin and piano sonatas, will be presented tonight, Saturday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 8:30 o'clock in the Carmel Woman's Club building, San Carlos and Ninth.

Sponsored by the Institute of Theatre Arts, David Schneider, violinist, and Reina Schiro, pianist, will play the sonatas in a series. Both are members of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra.

Proceeds from the concerts will be used to establish a scholarship for a Peninsula resident at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music.

ring, who is studying at the Stanford-in-Italy campus in Florence until September 7, then plans to travel in Europe until December. Mr. Bixler asked Janet if her travels could include a visit to a Lions Club meeting in Steyr.

This is Janet's answer.

"It will be quite convenient for me to visit the village of Steyr to attend a Lions Club meeting (maybe I can sing In Our Den as I still remember it from a Hallowe'en party about ten years ago) and hopefully the Grohs family. I only regret that I have no command of the German language (yet!) I also would enjoy speaking to the Lions Club in Carmel when I return in December. (I guess my father hasn't told you that when I start talking, especially about an experience that has been so meaningful to my life as this one most certainly has, I just never stop.)

Janet graduated with honors from Carmel High School in 1959. She has been abroad six months, completing her sophomore year and beginning her junior year studies at the Stanford Italian campus. During October and November she and several other Stanford girls will travel through Switzerland, the Low Countries, Germany, Austria, Italy, Spain and France. Janet already has been in Austria to attend the Salsburg Music Festival and hike in the Alps.

Small and large printing orders are quickly filled at The Pine Cone Press. Dial Carmel MA 4-3881.

INTERTIDAL WALKS

Two intertidal walks are scheduled next week at Point Lobos Reserve State Park. Sunday, 6:30 o'clock in the morning, will be the time for those planning to accompany Jud Vandevere, park naturalist, on the first low tide walk to meet at the park entrance. On Wednesday, the second intertidal walk will start at 8:00 o'clock in the morning from the same location. Only surefooted persons, properly dressed for the hazardous walks, should plan to take part in these expeditions around Sea Lion Point, according to Mr. Vandevere. The only other park that has similar walks is situated in the New England States.
